

COUNTY OF

ALLEGHENY

RICH FITZGERALD
COUNTY EXECUTIVE

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Google Pittsburgh is celebrating its 10th anniversary this year; in 2006, the company moved into the Collaborative Innovation Center on Carnegie Mellon University's campus, and has since become a staple in our community; and

WHEREAS, located today in Bakery Square, Google Pittsburgh's engineers and product managers have worked on Search, Ads, and Ads-Shopping products used by hundreds of millions of people, as well as core engineering infrastructure; and

WHEREAS, Google Pittsburgh, which drives major projects but still has a close-knit feel among employees, has included some of the aspects that make Pittsburgh unique in its office space; the office boasts murals of a railroad bridge and the city skyline, and has a replica Kennywood Amusement Park roller coaster car; and

WHEREAS, the Google Pittsburgh office has worked with our local community over the past decade, and has an especially deep relationship with CMU; the office also does outreach with kindergarten through twelfth grade students, and hosts a weeklong Women in Engineering program from girls who are interested in computer science; and

WHEREAS, Allegheny County is proud to have been the home of Google Pittsburgh for the past 10 years and for the positive impact it has made on our region.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that I, Allegheny County Executive Rich Fitzgerald, by virtue of the authority vested in me, do hereby congratulate Google Pittsburgh on this exciting 10th anniversary. We look forward to many more years of wonderful partnership.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the County of Allegheny to be affixed this 21st day of January, 2016.
