

Improving Educational & Well Being Outcomes

The Allegheny County Department of Human Services Public School Data Sharing Partnerships

The Partnership

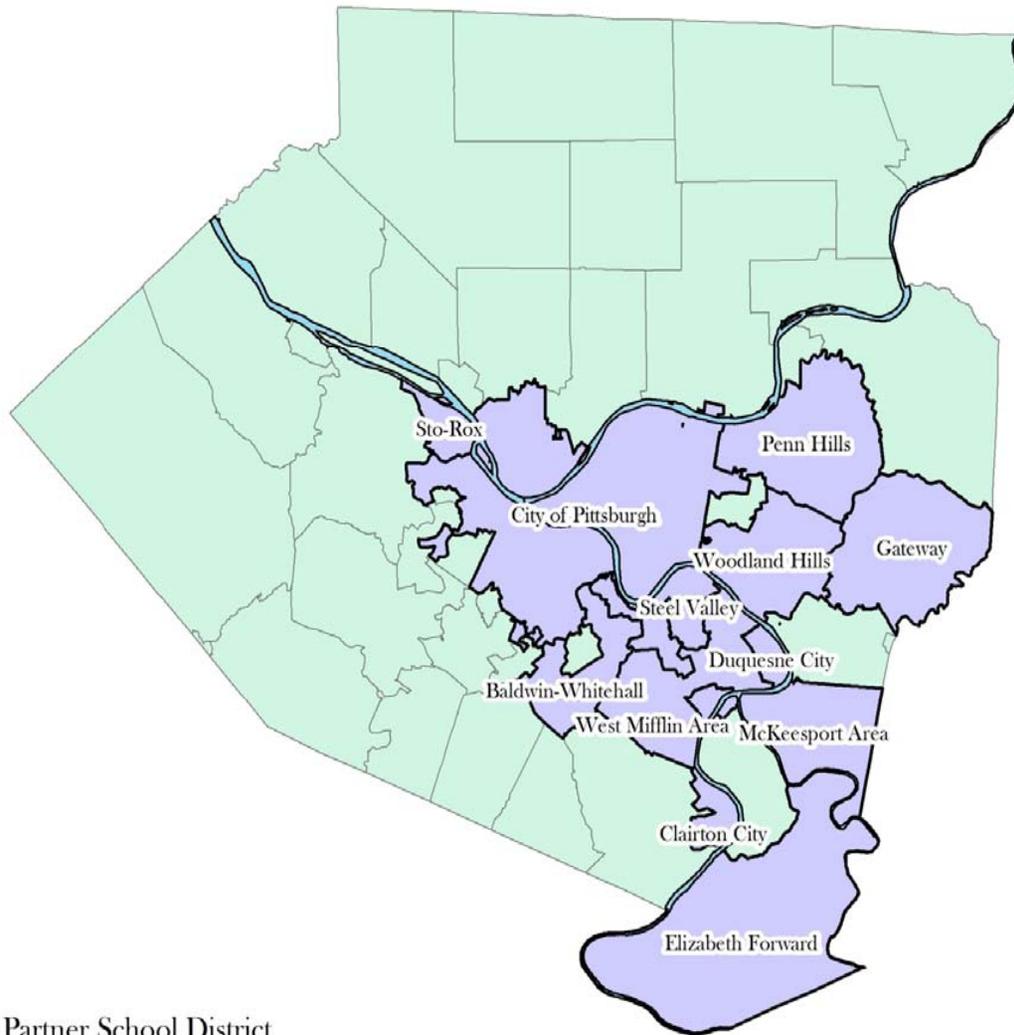

What Are We Trying To Accomplish?

“How do we improve educational outcomes and child well-being in Allegheny County?”

- Share data to identify attributes and indicators for academic and behavioral successes and challenges
- Enable School Districts and Allegheny County Department of Human Services to create and implement strategies and/or interventions to improve educational outcomes and enhance child and family well being

Data Sharing with School Districts

- MOU I
 - one way data sharing, the school district to DHS
- MOU II
 - DHS can share data back with school districts
 - Child Welfare and Homelessness

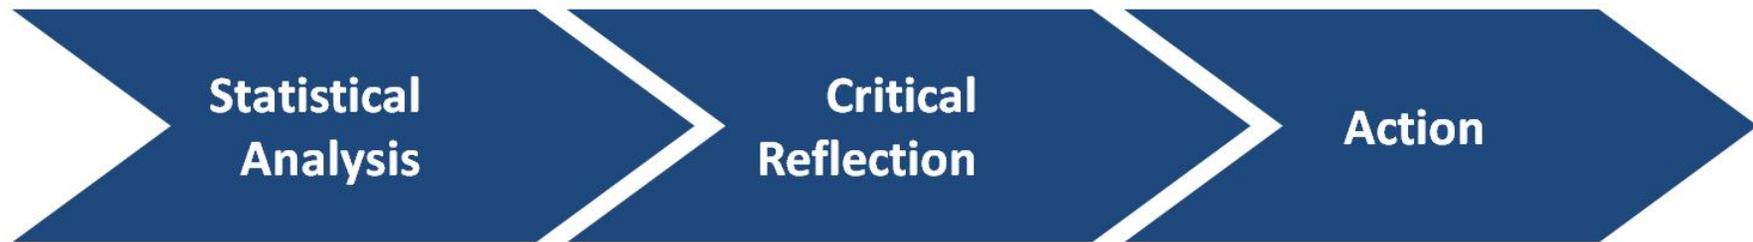

Current and Historic Data will be Integrated

Benefits for Districts

- No cost to the district
- Participation in Community Stakeholder group – access to key grantmakers in the region
- Because of the overlap of students served by DHS and your school district, partnering helps to better coordinate services that can improve the educational outcomes and well-being outcomes of the children and youth we serve
- The electronic transfer of students' up-to-date educational records will be made available to direct service workers where legal and appropriate
- The district and DHS can better identify and allocate resource and training needs
- Analysis (free of charge) of the type and degree of human service involvement within the school district. Ad hoc analysis for grant-writing if needed
- Funders look favorably on more formalized partnerships and collaborations
- Helps foster stronger relationships with human services and counselors/social workers

School Data in DataVue

School Name:	NORTHVIEW K-5
Current Grade:	Seventh Grade
School Contact #	412-323-3130
Enrollment Dates:	04/10/2012

Below the current information is the 'Historical School Information' section, which is currently empty. At the bottom of the page, there is an 'Export to Excel' button.
