County Police Investigating Assault in the Borough of Avalon

Avalon, Allegheny County – On Tuesday, October 23, at approximately 12:30 a.m., the Avalon Police were dispatched to an address in the 700 block of Ohio River Boulevard in response to 9-1-1 calls about a domestic disturbance. They arrived and learned a male victim had been transported to a local hospital via private vehicle. They located that victim and determined he was 40 years of age and had suffered a non-life-threatening stab wound to the neck.

Detectives from the Allegheny County Police General Investigations Unit responded to the scene. It was determined the victim had sustained his wounds during an altercation with another male while arguing about a female.

The investigation is ongoing, any updates will be released via email press release.
