County Police Seize Drugs and a Gun in Braddock Borough

Braddock Borough, Allegheny County – During the early morning hours of Thursday, December 19, 2019, Allegheny County Police Narcotics Detectives executed a search warrant on the residence located at 613 Corey Avenue. Detectives had obtained a search warrant for the residence as the result of a narcotics investigation targeting heroin trafficking within the Braddock area.

The following items of evidence were seized during a search of the residence:

450 individual stamp bags of heroin/fentanyl, a stolen Glock 26 9mm handgun, a small quantity of MDMA pills (ecstasy), a small quantity of marijuana, and $990.00 in cash. The retail street value of the heroin/fentanyl is $2,700.

One adult male, identified as 28-year-old James Wise, was arrested on scene. Wise was charged with felony possession with intent to deliver heroin/fentanyl, receiving stolen property, person not to possess a firearm, and possession. Wise had a prior felony drug arrest and conviction and is a person who cannot possess a firearm under Pennsylvania Statute. He has been lodged in the Allegheny County Jail to await a preliminary arraignment.
