McCoy Road in Stowe Reopens to Traffic

PITTSBURGH – The Department of Public Works announced today that McCoy Road just northwest of Dunn Street in Stowe Township has reopened to traffic earlier than expected. A full closure of the road, which began on July 20, 2020, was required for installation of erosion protection and compacted material to support the roadway, relocation of utilities, as well as replacement of pavement and guide rail.

The northbound lane of that section of McCoy Road had been closed since March 5, 2019, following a landslide.

The $464,000 project was done by A. Merante Contracting, Inc. of Pittsburgh.
