COUNTY EXECUTIVE

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Ms. Charli~~ze~~ Donaldson has been crowned the 2014 National American Miss Pennsylvania Princess; and

WHEREAS, National American Miss has a mission to encourage America's future leaders and equip them with valuable life skills; besides trophies and the possibilities of winning prizes, scholarships, cash and awards, contestants gain self-confidence and experience from interviewing and appearing on stage in front of an audience; and

WHEREAS, Charli competed for the National Title in Anaheim, California in November 2014 and was 1st Runner Up against many of the top contestants in the United States; she was also named 4th Runner Up in the Spokesmodel Competition, 2nd Runner Up in the Essay Contest, and 2nd Runner Up in the Most Promising Model category; and

WHEREAS, Charli is seven years old and is in the second grade at St. Gabriel of the Sorrowful Virgin; she enjoys playing ice hockey, is a member of the Girl Scouts, and is participating in her school play this year; and

WHEREAS, it is important that our youth be encouraged in their strengths and abilities through competition; the National American Miss competition is a great outlet for young women to practice their public speaking and writing skills, to meet other driven and ambitious young people, and acquire leadership abilities.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that I, Allegheny County Executive Rich Fitzgerald, by virtue of the authority vested in me, do hereby congratulate Charli Donaldson on being named the 2014 National American Miss Pennsylvania Princess and wish her all the best in her future endeavors!

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the County of Allegheny to be affixed this 16th day of March, 2015.
