Questions and Answers on Magisterial District Judge Certificate of Nomination

1. What is an Incumbent Magisterial District Judge Certificate of Nomination?
 - a. The Incumbent Magisterial District Judge Certificate of Nomination (IMDJCN) is a means for an elected incumbent Magisterial District Judge to access the ballot of the primary election without gathering signatures.
 - b. The IMDJCN is established by Section 912.1(32) of the PA Election Code, 25 P.S. § 2872.1(32), which was enacted into law by Act 127 of 2018 on October 24, 2018.
 - c. The language of Act 127 of 2018 is available online at <https://www.legis.state.pa.us/cfdocs/Legis/LI/uconsCheck.cfm?txtType=HTM&yr=2018&sessInd=0&smthLwInd=0&act=127>.
2. Is this the same as the “other” certificate of nomination that has existed for many years?
 - a. No. Certificates of nomination are issued under the Election Code’s Article IX(E), 25 P.S. §§ 2953-60, to fill vacancies caused by death or withdrawal of a candidate, and are used to submit a candidate’s name for a November election or a special election. They are like the IMDJCN only in that no voters’ signatures must be gathered.
 - b. The IMDJCN is used to submit a candidate’s name for the primary election, and only for an incumbent magisterial district judge running for re-election. (An incumbent magisterial district judge serving by appointment of the Governor may not file an IMDJCN, but must circulate and file nomination petitions in the same manner as any other non-incumbent candidate.)
3. When filing for re-election, what other documents must incumbent magisterial district judges submit besides the certificate?
 - a. The General Assembly in Act 127 did not specify the requirements for filing in detail, but the Department of State understands the IMDJCN to take the place of the nomination petition only.
 - b. Other candidate filing requirements established by the Election Code remain in effect, including:
 - i. Candidate’s Affidavit,
 - ii. Filing Fee,
 - iii. Statement of Financial Interest, and
 - iv. Campaign Finance Filing Requirements or Waiver of Expense Account reporting Affidavit.
4. What is the deadline for filing these documents?
 - a. The Department of State understands the deadline for filing the IMDJCN to be the same as the deadline for filing nomination petitions.
 - b. For other required documents and filings, their respective deadlines continue to apply.
5. What about third parties?
 - a. Act 127 addresses only nomination petitions and access to the ballot for the primary election, which by law is conducted only for the nomination of candidates by the “major” political parties (i.e., the Republican and Democratic parties currently).
 - b. Act 127 does not appear to grant any privileged ballot access to incumbent magisterial district judges who seek the nomination of a minor political party or a political body. An incumbent magisterial district judge who seeks re-election as the candidate of a minor political party or political body must, like any other such candidate, gather signatures through nomination papers as provided in Section 912.2 and Article IX(B) of the Election Code, 25 P.S. §§ 2872.2, 2911-14.
