

Reported Cases of Sexually Transmitted Infections (STIs) Allegheny County, PA, 2023

CHLAMYDIA

5,283 new cases
6% decrease from 2022

58% of cases in females
Highest among ages 15-24

11x Higher rate in Black persons compared with White persons

GONORRHEA

2,455 new cases
3% decrease from 2022

63% of cases in males
Highest among ages 25-34

12x Higher rate in Black persons compared with White persons

EARLY SYPHILIS

279 new cases
2% increase from 2022

Males accounted for 85% of early syphilis cases

6x Higher rate in Black persons compared with White persons

Early Syphilis Risk Factors Among Males (n=237)

- Oral sex in last year (74%)
- Sex with a male in last year (64%)
- History of previous STDs (61%)
- Anal sex in last year (55%)
- Multiple sex partners in last year (70%)

- Sexually active women <25 years should get tested for gonorrhea and chlamydia at least annually
- Gay, bisexual, & men who have sex with men should be tested for all STIs at least annually
- Everyone between 13-64 years should get an HIV test at least once as part of routine care or more frequently if at high risk of STIs
- Pregnant persons should get syphilis screenings at 1st visit, 3rd trimester, and delivery
- Talk to your healthcare provider about DoxyPEP to reduce your chances of getting syphilis and chlamydia

Get tested today!

Free HIV & STI testing
available at the Allegheny
County Public Health Clinic

1908 Wylie Avenue, Pittsburgh PA 15219

412-578-8081

Open: M, T, Th, F 9a-3:45p & W 12p-6:45p