Health Department Announces 17 New Food Establishments Opened in March

PITTSBURGH – The Allegheny County Health Department (ACHD) announced the opening of seventeen food establishments in the county in March, including ten restaurants, one caterer, a tea house, one wholesaler, a spice emporium; one bakery, a fitness snack bar, and an entertainment venue.

“The key to a healthy diet is choosing foods that have more good fats than bad fats, or trans fats,” said Health Department Director, Dr. Karen Hacker. “As part of our county-wide commitment to promoting individual and community wellness, we also look at and highlight those facilities that use trans fat-free cooking oils. We see more eateries taking that step toward living well. Last month, eight of the seventeen food establishments that opened cook with these healthier oils. This month, there are another eight.”

Those facilities using trans fat-free cooking oils are:

- Pizza Palermo, 14 Smithfield Street, Pittsburgh (Downtown)
- Streets On Carson, 1120 East Carson Street, Pittsburgh (South Side)

- Pear And The Pickle, 1800 Rialto Street, Pittsburgh (Troy Hill)
- DJ's Sandwich Shoppe, 4613 Liberty Avenue, Pittsburgh (Bloomfield)
